

The award of Honorary Fellowship HonFACadMED

Professor Hisham Khalil HonFACadMED

Honorary Fellowship is the Academy's highest award. It is intended for exceptional individuals whose contributions to medical education are often internationally recognised and who have made a significant contribution to medical education in the United Kingdom.

At the Academy's Annual General meeting on 26 April 2022 the President was delighted to award Honorary Fellowship to Professor Hisham Khalil MD, MB ChB, MS, FRCSI (Otol), FRCS (ORL-HNS), MD, Dip Med Ed, PFHEA, MClin.Ed

Professor Hisham Khalil upholds and demonstrates the Academy of Medical Educators values and standards to the highest level across the medical school in Plymouth and in his work with postgraduate trainees.

Hisham Khalil is Head of the Peninsula Medical School, Faculty of Health: Medicine, Dentistry and Human Sciences, Consultant ENT Surgeon and until recently Non-Executive Director of University Hospitals Plymouth and Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust. He is also a GMC Associate for quality assurance.

He is a National Teaching Fellow and a Principal Fellow of the Higher Education Academy. He prides himself that one of the principal functions of the 'Educator' is to act as a 'role model' for students and trainees, inspiring them, making them aware of their potential and helping them realise their ambitions. Throughout his career, he has been committed to learning and teaching of undergraduate and postgraduate students and trainees in Medicine, Dentistry and Nursing. This has been at multiple levels including curriculum design, quality assurance, mentorship, educational innovations, and learning resources.
